Westchester Mental Health Court Client

Judge: By accepting your plea of guilty and your promise to comply with your treatment plan, the Westchester Mental Health Court agrees to the following:

The Westchester Mental Health Court will help you get treatment, case management and/or housing services as described in your treatment plan.

The Westchester Mental Health Court will assign a case manager to meet with you regularly to discuss your participation and progress in treatment.

The Westchester Mental Health Court will hold you accountable for your actions, in that your successful compliance with your treatment mandate will be rewarded and acknowledged through the different phases of treatment, and sanctions, including jail time, will be imposed for your failure to comply with your treatment plan or with the Court's rules and procedures as outlined in the Westchester Mental Health Court Program Participation Guidelines.

If you fail to complete your treatment mandate or voluntarily withdraw, the Westchester Mental Health Court will impose the agreed upon jail/prison sentence.

If you successfully complete your treatment mandate, the Westchester Mental Health Court will: ___ permit you to withdraw your felony plea and sentence you on your misdemeanor plea to 3 years probation, or ___ other _____
